TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Subscription orders are paid in US dollar ($) currency and prices quoted are definitive.

The academic subscription rate is valid only for academic institutions and not to companies and corporations, in which case the corporate subscription rate applies

All listed journals are available in print and online editions, with the exceptions of two titles, which are online only.

All subscription orders must be prepaid.

All subscriptions apply for the calendar year only.

No cancellations are accepted.

Claims for missing issues are only accepted within six-months of dispatch.

Online subscriptions: please note that the academic and corporate online subscription rate applies to one site access only. In the case of multiple sites and/or proxy access, ie. a Global Online License, please contact us for the exact pricing details. A Global Online License is based on the number of sites and the people accessing from each site.
